March 17, 2008

*Oakdale High School
Sober Graduation Awareness Week*

Legend holds that Sober Grad Night was conceived over forty years ago by parents and civic leaders concerned about the hazardous choices made by students celebrating their high school graduation and which frequently led to tragedy. Since then, parents, students, and concerned citizens across the United States have transformed Sober Grad Night into an annual rite of passage: an alcohol-free gala event that provides fun and positive activities in a safe environment.

I applaud the Sober Grad Night Committee, Oakdale High School, and the City of Oakdale for establishing the week of March 17, 2008, as "Sober Graduation Awareness Week" and enthusiastically commend your dedication to Oakdale's high school graduates.

Congratulations and please accept my best wishes for a successful event.

Sincerely,
